

USE AND PRIVACY POLICY

By participating in our Supplier Portal, Supplier agrees to these Use and Privacy Policy terms and conditions.

Our Supplier Portal is a business-to-business web-based site for the purpose of pre-qualifying suppliers in connection with potential work opportunities with our firm. The information and documentation retained in the Portal ("Content") is provided by the Supplier who may change it at any time by accessing their secure account.

It is the Supplier's sole responsibility to ensure their Content is current, complete and accurate. We will not make any changes to it based on information or documentation delivered or provided to us through any other means. Should you have any difficulty revising your Content, please contact (sp.support@geosyntec.com).

You agree that we may use your Content for the purpose of pre-qualification. Incomplete or outdated Content may be a reason for disqualification. A list of qualified Suppliers is available to our project management staff and teams as a selection tool; however, no minimum amount of work is guaranteed.

We will not release any Content outside our organization with the exception of our insurers or legal advisors as necessary. Access by our staff to Content is limited to a need to know basis. Content subject to privacy laws will be treated accordingly.

You agree to use our Supplier Portal in accordance with applicable laws and regulations. We reserve the right to terminate your account on the Portal arising from your failure to comply with this Use and Privacy Policy.

No third party beneficiary rights are given or made. Any provision herein found to be unenforceable shall not affect any other terms. These terms are the entire agreement between us with respect to our Supplier Portal with respect to Use and Privacy.
